- (2) in respect of the accounting statements prepared, an auditor's report for each financial year, stating whether in their opinion these statements have been properly prepared in accordance with this clause and give a true and fair view of the revenues, costs, assets, liabilities, reserves and provisions of, or reasonably attributable to such businesses to which the statements relate; and
- (3) a copy of each half yearly profit and loss account not later than three months after the end of the period to which it relates, and copies of the accounting statements and auditor's report not later than six months after the end of the financial year to which they relate.

(3) The trading licensee shall not normally change the basis of charge or apportionment or allocation of revenues or expenses in relation to the preparation of the accounting statements in respect of a financial year from those applied in respect of the previous financial year, without prior intimation to the Commission. Any change, if proposed, in the basis of charge or apportionment of revenues or expenses shall be consistent with the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956, the accounting standards or regulations and any guidelines issued by the Commission in this regard.

(4) Where, in relation to the accounting statements in respect of a financial year, the trading licensee has changed the basis of charge or apportionment or allocation from those adopted for the immediately preceding financial year, the trading licensee shall, if directed by the Commission (in addition to preparing accounting statements on those bases which it has adopted), prepare and deliver to the Commission such accounting statements on the basis which it applied in respect of the immediately preceding financial year.

(5) The accounting statements under clause (2) shall, unless or otherwise approved or directed by the Commission,—

- (a) be prepared and published with the annual accounts of the trading licensee, in the manner provided herein;
- (b) state the accounting policies adopted;

- (c) be prepared in accordance with generally accepted Indian accounting standards; and
- (d) be prepared in the form as the Commission may stipulate from time to time.

(6) The references to costs or liabilities of, or reasonably attributable to licensed business or other business shall be construed as excluding taxation, and capital liabilities which do not relate principally to such business and interest thereon.

(7) The trading licensee shall ensure that the accounting statements in respect of each financial year prepared under clause (2) and the auditor's report in respect of each financial year are publicised in such manner as the Commission may direct and are made available to any person requesting them at a price not exceeding the reasonable cost of duplicating them.

7. Provision of information to the commission.—(1) The trading licensee shall furnish to the Commission without undue delay such information, documents and details related to the licensed business or any other business of the trading licensee, as the Commission may require for its own purposes or for the purposes of the Government of India, State Government, the State Transmission Utility, the State Load Despatch Centre, the Central Commission and/or the Central Electricity Authority.

(2) The trading licensee shall duly maintain the information as the Commission may direct under section 128 of the Act.

(3) The trading licensee shall duly inform the Commission about any incident restricting it from meeting its obligation under the licence granted including any act of omission or commission by others and steps taken by the trading licensee to mitigate the effect of such incident. The trading licensee shall notify the Commission as soon as possible the occurrence of any other incident which materially affect any part of its trading activities and, in any event, by not later than two months from the date of such occurrence,—

- (a) submit a report to the Commission giving full details of the facts within the knowledge of the trading licensee regarding the incident and its cause;
- (b) trading licensee can reasonably furnish and state reasons as to why trading licensee requires more than two months for giving full report of such incident; and

- (c) give copies of the report to all parties concerned with the major incident and to such other persons as the Commission may direct.

(4) The trading licensee shall also undertake such studies as the Commission may direct it to undertake from time to time in regard to the trading activities and any other matter concerning the trading business that the Commission considers necessary in the public interest. The Commission at its own discretion may require the submission of a report to be prepared by an independent person on the activities of the trading licensee at the cost and expense of the trading licensee.

(5) The Commission may at any time require the trading licensee to comply with the provisions of this regulation in a manner the Commission may direct and the trading licensee shall be obliged to comply with the same.

(6) The trading licensee shall submit a business plan within three months of trading licence coming in force for such period as the Commission may direct and shall update such plan annually. The business plan shall contain yearwise turnover projected profit and loss account, projected balance sheets, projected cash flow statements and projected important financial parameters.

8. Capital adequacy, credit worthiness norms to maintained.—(1) The trading licensee shall duly comply with the regulations, guidelines, directions and orders the Commission may issue from time to time in regard to the technical and financial parameters and norms to be maintained at all times by the trading licensee. These shall include the technical requirements, capital adequacy and credit worthiness for being a electricity trader, as may be specified by the Commission under section 52 of the Act.

(2) The non-maintenance of the technical and financial parameters as per clause (1) shall amount to a material breach of the obligations of the trading licensee.

9. Payment of licence fees.—(1) Within such period as the Commission may direct, the trading licensee shall pay to the Commission the licence fees, initial and also periodic, mentioned in the special condition in such manner as the Commission may direct in the said special condition.

(2) Where the trading licensee fails to pay to the Commission any of the fees due under clause (1) by the due dates,—

- (a) without prejudice to other obligations, the trading licensee shall be liable to pay interest on the outstanding amount at a simple interest rate of 1.5 per cent per month, the interest being payable for the period beginning on the day after which the amount became due, and ending on the day on which the payment is made to the Commission in cleared funds; and
- (b) in the event of continued default by the trading licensee, the Commission may revoke the trading licence.

10. Terms of revocation.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 19 of the Act and the regulations framed thereunder, the Commission may, at any time initiate proceedings against the trading licensee for revocation of the trading licence and if satisfied in such proceedings on the grounds for revocation duly considering the public interest, revoke the trading licence—

- (a) where the trading licensee in the opinion of the Commission, makes material breach or wilful default in doing anything required of him by or under this Act or the rules or regulations made thereunder;
- (b) where the trading licensee violates any of the terms or conditions of his licence the breach of which is expressly declared by such licence to render it liable to revocation;
- (c) where the trading licensee fails, within the period fixed in this behalf by his licence, or any longer period which the Commission may have granted therefore—
 - (1) to show, to the satisfaction of the Commission, that he is in a position to fully and efficiently discharge the duties and obligations imposed on him by his licence; or
 - (2) to make deposits or furnish the security, or pay the fees or other charges required by his licence;
- (d) where in the opinion of the Commission the financial position of the trading licensee is such that he is unable to fully and efficiently discharge the duties and obligations imposed on him; and

- (e) where the trading licensee has failed to comply with all the regulations, codes, and standards and also orders and directions of the Commission or otherwise has committed an act which renders trading licence revocable on any other grounds stated in the Act or the rules or regulations framed thereunder.

(2) Where in its opinion the public interest so requires, the Commission may, on application, or with the consent of the trading licensee, revoke his licence as to the whole or any part of his area of trading upon such terms and conditions as it thinks fit.

(3) Before revoking a trading licence the Commission may make such alternate arrangement to be made for discharging the duties of the trading licensee which the Commission considers necessary in public interest and all such arrangement shall be at the cost and risk of the trading licensee.

11. Amendment of license conditions.—(1) These general conditions of the license may, at any time it deems fit if it is in public interest, be altered or amended by the Commission in exercise of powers under section 18 of the Act subject to the condition that—

- (a) where the trading licensee has made an application under section 18, sub-section (1) of the Act proposing any alteration or amendment in the general conditions of license, the trading licensee shall publish a notice of such application with such particulars and in such manner as may be directed by the Commission;
- (b) in the case of an application proposing alterations or modifications in the area of activity comprising the whole or any part of any cantonment, aerodrome, fortress, arsenal, camp or of any building or place in the occupation of the Government for defence purposes, the alterations or modifications shall be made only with the consent of the Central Government;
- (c) where any alterations or amendments in a license are proposed to be made otherwise than on the application of the trading licensee, the Commission shall publish the proposed alterations or amendments with such particulars and in such manner as the Commission consider to be appropriate;
- (d) the Commission shall not make any alterations or amendments unless all suggestions or objections received within thirty days from the date of the first publication of the notice have been considered by the Commission.

12. Dispute resolution.—(1) The Commission shall be entitled to act as arbitrator or nominate person(s) as arbitrator(s) to adjudicate and settle disputes between the trading licensee and any other licensees or between the trading licensee and generating companies in pursuance of clause (f) of sub-section (1) of section 86, read with section 158, of the Act and regulations of the Commission.

(2) The arbitration proceedings for disputes under clause (1) above may be commenced and conducted by the Commission or the disputes may be referred to the arbitration of others, as the case may be, in accordance with the Conduct of Business Regulations framed by the Commission.

13. Tariff and trading markings expected revenue calculation and tariffs.—(1) The trading licensee shall calculate the expected revenue from charges which it is permitted to recover as a trading margin, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, the regulations of the Commission, the tariff terms and conditions and other guidelines, orders and directions issued by the Commission from time to time.

(2) The trading licensee shall file the expected revenue calculation in the manner provided in the Conduct of Business Regulations and consistent with the regulations under section 61 of the Act.

(3) Unless otherwise provided in the special conditions or in any order or direction made by the Commission the trading licensee shall every year, not later than 30th November, submit to the Commission a Statement with full details of its expected aggregate revenues and cost of service for the ensuing financial year for its licensed business based on the trading margin allowed by the Commission, in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the regulations, guidelines and orders issued by the Commission from time to time.

14. Miscellaneous.—(1) All issues arising in relation to interpretation of these regulations and as to the terms and conditions thereof shall be a matter for the determination of the Commission and the decision of the Commission on such issues shall be final, subject only to the right of appeal under section 111 of the Act.

(2) The Commission may at the time of grant of trading licence waive or modify the application of any of the provisions of these regulations either in the order granting the licence or by Special Conditions made applicable to a specific trading licensee.

(3) The general conditions contained herein shall apply to all applicants for grant of trading licence after the coming into force of the Act and also to all deemed trading licensees under section 14 proviso first, second, third and fifth of the Act.

15. Provisions to apply to deemed licensees.—The general conditions contained herein shall apply to all applicants for grant of trading licence after the coming into force of the Act and also to all deemed trading licensees under section 14 proviso first, second, third and fifth of the Act.

16. Removal of difficulties.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Commission may, from time to time, issue orders and practice directions in regard to the implementation of these regulations and procedures to be followed on various matters, which the Commission has been empowered by these regulations to direct and matters incidental or ancillary thereto.

(2) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of these regulations, the Commission may, by general or special order, do or prevent the trading licensee to do or undertake things, which in the opinion of the Commission is necessary or expedient for removing the difficulties.

(3) No order shall be made under this section after the expiry of the period of one year from the date of the commencement of these regulations and every order made under this regulation shall be subject to the conditions of previous publication and shall be laid, as soon as may, after it is made, before the State Legislature Assembly.

17. Repeal & savings.—(1) Save as otherwise provided in these regulations, the general or specific conditions of the distribution license laid down under the Indian Electricity Act, 1910 or the Electricity Regulatory Commissions Act, 1998 or any other law in force immediately before the commencement of these regulations are hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal anything done or any action taken or purported to have been done or taken under the repealed general or specific conditions of a trading licence shall, in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of these regulations, be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of these regulations.

(3) The specific conditions of the trading licence and directions issued before the commencement of these regulations (including those given both at the public hearings and in the Tariff Order as contained in Chapter 7 of the Tariff Order 2001-02 issued under the Electricity Regulatory Commissions Act, 1998), not inconsistent with the provisions of these regulations, shall continue to apply for the period for which such general or specific conditions and directions were issued.
